

Ben Stern named as judge for the 2023 eprivateclient Excellence Awards.

The eprivateclient awards celebrate excellence within the private client professional services.

Ben Stern

Partner and head of family office services

Lincoln Private Investment Office

Ben Stern is a partner and head of family office services at Lincoln Private Investment Office. He has over 20 years' experience advising HNW individuals from a range of backgrounds including entrepreneurs and finance industry professionals.

Lincoln is a wealth management business that is truly aligned to its clients. The firm has no external shareholders and the partners invest all of their own personal assets alongside their clients.

Prior to Lincoln, Mr Stern was a senior director at Barclays Wealth managing a team of bankers and advising clients. He is a member of the Chartered Institute for Securities and Investment. He is also a trustee of a charity supporting children with rare chromosome disorders and a director of an online retail business.